

News&Updates

May 2009 - The ACU National chooses Unicard Systems

Unicard Systems, after a substantial process has won all aspects of the ACU National requirements to install a complete new ID card and account based transaction management solution. The system will integrate into the student management system as well as the finance database and installation will commence in September 2009.

ACU National is The Australian Catholic University, a public university funded by the Australian Government and open to students and staff of all beliefs.

ACU National have six campuses in Australia and offer programs throughout Australia and overseas. Campuses are located in Brisbane (Queensland), North Sydney and Strathfield, (New South Wales), Canberra (ACT), Ballarat and Melbourne (Victoria).

ACU National in advising the company of its successful selection thanked and congratulated Unicard for its performance in the project and looked forward to the ongoing relationship.

April 2009 - ATEM Student Service Desk Conference Perth

Unicard Systems has continued the outstanding relationship enjoyed with the tertiary sector by sponsoring the major Australian Student Service Desk conference held in April this year.

The Student Service Desk conference in Fremantle was attended by more than 180 delegates and allowed Unicard to thank its many valuable clients by sponsoring this major event.

March 2009 - Export Success Continues

Unicard Systems has continued the broadening of its sales with export success to Malaysia and China with custom formatted Mifare card readers. The readers which were initially designed for use in the demanding and high activity university environment have proven to be technically outstanding and economically practical in a number of overseas projects.

The export success was built on strong sales in Australia with one major tertiary institution now having installed over 1,000 of the M-Series readers.

May 2008 - Unicard Sponsors Association of Tertiary Education Managers Conferences

Unicard Systems has continued the outstanding relationship enjoyed with the tertiary sector by sponsoring the two major Australian conferences held in May this year. The Service Desk conference in Brisbane was attended by more than 170 delegates and allowed Unicard to share its 25th birthday celebrations by sponsoring the major event dinner themed on a beach party.

May 2008 - Unicard Wins University of Western Sydney ID System Software Tender Commissions for Mid-Year Enrolments Conferences

Unicard Systems have recently completed the commissioning of ID card software for the University of Western Sydney with integration into various systems. The installation of the flagship UNI.Suite Platinum software now brings to twenty-six the number of Australian universities who receive all or part of their identity, transaction management or access control needs from Unicard.

April 2008 - Unicard Displays ePay Terminal at Cards Asia 2008 Singapore

Unicard Systems utilising space provided by HID has displayed the latest ePay terminal at the Cards Asia Expo in Singapore. The ePay terminal was displayed with products utilising HID components and drew great interest from many visitors to this prestigious international event.

The large and spectacular HID stand was located at the key entrance to the exhibition and also featured new Fargo products as well the range of other HID products. The Head of Fargo in the Asia/Pacific Region gave an enthusiastic and fascinating paper on the release of the new Fargo HDPIi instant issuance card printer which has caused remarkable interest in the banking and finance sector.

March 2008 - Unicard Celebrates 25 Years Service to the Australian Market

Unicard Systems celebrates its 25th year of operation this year and looks forward to many years more of successful trading.

From modest beginnings in 1983 as a company specialising in boxes on photocopiers using magnetic stripe cards, Unicard has grown into a dynamic organisation offering the latest in card technologies and systems to be the leader in identity cards and Mifare technology in the tertiary education sector.

Unicard now boasts a client list of over 700 organisations around Australia and many new clients overseas.

Unicard celebrated the event appropriately in this Olympic Year with the first special export of our M-series Mifare readers to China. The readers which are made in Australia reflect the commitment to research and development and manufacturing.

December 2007 - Unicard Wins Charles Sturt University Tender

Unicard Systems, after a strenuous process has won all aspects of the Charles Sturt University tender to install a new complete ID card and account based transaction management solution. The system integrates into the Banner student management system as well as the Banner finance database with the additional benefit of encoding of cards for use with the Cardax access control system at time of card issue.

Charles Sturt University have also chosen the latest Unicard kiosk for Eftpos transactions for adding value to user accounts.

Unicard will also be installing a unique local university bus payment system utilising the latest wireless ePay technology.

October 2007 - Darwin office open for business

Unicard Systems are very pleased to advise that the company has opened an office in Darwin to service our many valuable clients in the Northern Territory and northern Western Australia. The new premises will hold a range of Unicard and Fargo products as well comprehensive stocks of consumables and service parts. The Unicard "ID Onsite" service will also operate from this office to provide services to small and medium size companies who want to have a professional ID card for staff produced on their premises.

September 2007 - Fargo Distribution News

The upgrading of Unicard Systems Pty Ltd to be a Fargo Electronics International Distributor as well as System Integrator and Partner has seen an unprecedented surge in business, particularly with access control projects. Scott Sester, Fargo Electronics International Sales Manager made the announcement just prior to the Australian Security Industry Association Limited Exhibition and Conference held in Sydney this year. Unicard can now offer identity and access solutions (including legacy) for integration that include; General Electric (ARES 5 & ForceField), Cardax, Siemens, BQT Smax, SALTA and Inner Range (Concept 4000). The new range of Fargo identity software solutions, Asure ID®, compliments the extensive range of ID solutions offered by Unicard.

August 2007 - UNI.Suite Platinum chosen by Railcorp

Unicard offers the most sophisticated ID systems made and developed in Australia including the new UNI.Suite Platinum product which was the selected solution for the NSW RailCorp tender this year. The RailCorp tender was the largest and most complex ID system tendered in NSW in the last two years and the awarding of this tender is a significant reward for the development that Unicard has invested and will continue to invest in the latest technology ID Systems.

June 2007 - University of Queensland go with TMS

The University of Queensland has enhanced the services available to students with the installation of the Unicard TMS account system. Students are able to utilise the system to pay for copying, printing and other services using the card for access and enhancing the campus experience!

1 December 2006 - Unicard wins Ballarat University ID Card and Cost Recovery tender

Unicard has been announced as the winner of the recent Ballarat University tender, for a complete ID Card and account based cost recovery solution. Unicard also supplies Ballarat University it's W700 mseries mifare readers for door access. The addition of Unicard's latest mifare technology now clears the way for Ballarat University to implement the latest technology in "One Card solutions" available.

25 June 2006 - Unicard wins Melbourne University ID Card tender

Unicard continues to dominate the University ID card market with its latest tender success. Unicard will be supplying an integrated ID card solution that will be responsible for all student ID cards. The ID Card system will also be supplying other University systems with related card information. With an existing Unicard cost recovery system already installed at the University of Melbourne, the addition of the new ID Card system will under pin a firm platform for another Unicard "One Card" solution.

30 March 2006 - Unicard wins UTS ID Card tender and successfully implements

Unicard Systems have recently completed commissioning of a complete ID card production system for the University of Technology Sydney with deep integration into various systems. The system includes campus wide image capture and card production facilities. With 10's of thousands of cards printed, the Unicard system continues to provide a robust and reliable card production facility.

30 September 2005 - Unicard TMS mifare cost recovery system takes off !

The popularity of the Unicard TMS mifare cost recovery system has been exciting, with three large organisations placing orders within the same year of release for installation during the 4th quarter 2005, and 1st quarter 2006. The installations include mifare access control, mifare ID card, and mifare cost recovery with ePay wireless options enabled.

Unicard are committed to providing the best integrated ID, Access control and cost recovery systems to the market place.

20 January 2005 - Terminal Management Server - new generation TMS Account / ePurse released !

Unicard Systems have undergone major product development in the last 12 months and have finally released Unicards new product line up. The new developments include new Back end server technology, terminals and access readers with entirely new electronics and a brand new look.

Unicard's new TMS Cost recovery system has been released and installed with great success. With seamless system and funds integration into Unicard's ID Card production, Access control systems and third party Print control applications such as pCounter, OCS and PHAROS, and a competitive price. There are no alternatives that can offer this kind of functionality and integration !!!